OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1901.

NUMBER 11.

DEERING CORN BINDER

The only practical, common sense, Corn Binder made. No matter how short or how long the corn, it cuts it and lays corn down on table and binds it in nice smooth bundles. Four fifths of all corn binders sold are the Deering make. Call and see binder. Full stock of Hardware. Good goods at low prices, and prompt service assured.

T. L. PRICE, Oregon, Missouri. Phone No. 60.

—Rev. T. A. Windsor will preach at Bigelow next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—Misses Lulu Oxley and Lydia Tanner, of St. Joseph, are visiting with the family of Fred Mark.

—George Hogrefe, wife and son have returned from their Colorado outing, greatly benefited by their trip.

—Mrs. Grace Boham of Corvallis, Iowa, who is visiting here, has been very sick at the home of her parents, T. S. Hinde and wife.

—The extreme drought did not prevent the Missouri River from stealing land; it is cutting several capers along its banks now.

—Captain William Kaucher is slowly improving from his recent sick spell. He has been confined to his home for the past five weeks.

—The teachers of our county will convene in annual institute in this city, Monday next. We bid them a most hearty welcome.

—J. N. McNeife sold his 90 acre farm north-east of this city last week to Jas. M. Campbell, of Buchanan county; consideration, $6,000.

—Rev. James S. Cunningham will preach in the Oregon Presbyterian church, next Sabbath morning, and in the evening union service will be held in the Christian church.

—Porto Rico is now enjoying free trade with the United States and it is curious to notice how quiet the Democratic papers are on the subject.

—GIFTS for Santa Claus Soap wrappers. See list at our store, best soap, price same as other good soap.

THE ZACHMAN-EVANS CO.

—A Grand Gold Medal contest is being talked up by New Point, Oregon and other unions to be probably held at the hall at New Point. Look for date later.

—an exceptionally good program will be rendered.

—On the second Sunday in August, 11th instant, memorial services will be conducted at the Nickel's Grove Evangelical church, to the memory of Jerry Mark, by Rev. Henry Crampton. Services will be held at 3 p. m.

—The fine Plymouth cockerel belonging to Dr. Williams and J. C. McHugh died recently, presumably from the heat. He cost over $20. A fine hen died for them and Dr. Hall lost a Silver Wyandotte cockerel which cost $5.

—R. S. Keeves put away some eggs, that were unmarketable, throwing them out in the rear of his store a few days ago, three of these were so far along that he now has three little chicks that stay close to the rear door of his store.

—Superintendent Linville, of our canning company, feels greatly encouraged since the recent rains over the outlook for the factory's running this season. He now believes they will be able to have a full half pack of corn, and about a 70 per cent pack of tomatoes.

—We publish in this issue a three column, six inch advertisement for the Kansas City Carnival Krewes Fair Association—another practical demonstration of the wonderful push and energy for which Kansas City business men are noted all over the country. It seems to us that the Carnival Krewes Fair Association are giving more for their money than ever offered by the enterprising citizens of Kansas City; then too, their proposition has an element of permanency. Read their advertisement.

—John Ashworth was in hard luck Saturday last. Just as the threshing gang was finishing their work on the place, John went out for the last load of wheat, and while loading the threshing engine gave a sharp, shrill whistle which started his mule team that they ran away, giving John a good churning through his hay rack. He was kicked up in an immense condition, and for a while it looked serious for him. He was taken to his home. Dr. Evans was called, and he is now all right, but badly bruised about the face and body. The team was stopped, and but little injury was done the wagon.

Plenty of Cheap Money to loan on good farms.

Town and country property for sale.

R. C. BENTON,

Real Estate Agent,

OREGON, MISSOURI.

—A Maryville firm received an order for clover seed from Hamburg, Germany, the other day.

—Those needing bee supplies call on F. S. Rostock. He has a first class sewing machine for sale cheap.

—The difference between rain and ruin is only one small letter, but it cuts a big figure out in the corn districts.

—Schulte Bros. have just received a large supply of the celebrated McOrnick binders, Mowers, Hay Rakes and Twines.

—The Hon. William J. Stone is fully welcome to all the glory he can get from advertising the fact that he helped to liberate the youngers.

—The hottest July day in the history of Holt county at this place, was Wednesday of last week, July 21st, 1901; at Maitland it was reported to have been 114.

—The Denver Bakery is head quarters for Ice Cream, Ice Cream Soda, Soda Water, Milk Shakes, Lemonade and Soda Pop of all kinds.

L. CARROLL, Prop.

—There are 231,727 acres of land in Missouri yet subject to homestead at $1.25 per acre. Nonetheless, disfranchisement and looting of the state school fund, are not calculated to encourage emigration.

—WANTED—Active man or woman with rig to deliver and collect; no canvassing; salary $50 per month; references and security required. J. M. Jeffers, Mgr., room 25, Ballinger building, St. Joseph, Mo.

—Communion service will be conducted at Woodville, next Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock, by Rev. Henry A. Sawyer, and at 8 o'clock Sabbath evening Rev. James S. Cunningham will preach at Woodville. Everybody cordially invited to these services.

—The tenant house on the N. P. Harer farm southeast of Mound City was destroyed by fire on Monday night of last week. The house was occupied by O. A. Wicker. But a small portion of the household effects were saved, the fire not being discovered until about midnight.

—When the registration booths closed at El Reno and Lawton, Friday last they showed a total registration of 167,007 at El Reno, 136,315 at Lawton 30,622. The drawing is now going on and will be completed on August 6th, and there will be about one chance to four to win a homestead.

—There were rumors around town one day last week to the effect that J. D. Cameron, who travels for C. W. Douglas & Son, had suffered a fatal fatal prostration. Fortunately for Mr. Cameron there was absolutely no truth in the report. He is attending to his trade the same as usual, much to the satisfaction of his many friends, here and over his territory.

—A Monticello girl voices her sentiments as follows, and we are sure some of our girls can vouch for their correctness: "If there is anything that will make me feel like you have got into a bunch of unwashed calves, it is when you come out of a church Sunday night and find a lot of dirty lined up on the sidewalk. They crowd along on the walks and compel women and children to elbow their way through. I'd like to see the girls arm themselves with a hat pin about two feet long and give every fellow that stands in her way a good poke."—Exchange.

—D. L. Funk wishes to let the people of Southern Holt county know that he is still agent for the Old Reliable Singer Sewing Machine, the champion of the world, and who has had eleven years' experience handling different machines, and found the Singer the choice of the choicest. He will sell on weekly or monthly payments. Anyone buying on these terms and paying up at the end of three months gets a discount of ten dollars; at the end of six months, five dollars; also will take in chickens, hogs, cattle or horses, wood and grain, anything that I can handle. You will find I am strictly in the push, having bought me a home in Oregon and am here to stay. Old machines taken in exchange at a good price.

D. L. FUNK, Oregon, Mo.

—We have never done very much farming, but we watch the "logic of events" some, and we want to say a few words to our farmers. Cows, heifers and brood sows next spring will undoubtedly be much higher than for years and for this reason farmers should keep all the cows, heifers and brood sows possible and attend to the sows so that the farrowing time will come at such a season to get the clover and grassmowens in the spring and the rye fields later and then the corn early and make good porkers by November and December, 1902. Don't get calamity stricken and rush your stuff to market. Put them on the market only when they are "ripe." Your hay, straw, corn and fodder will be abundant. Keep your cows, heifers and sows.

—Our people awoke last Friday morning with a strange sensation. As they rubbed their eyes and gazed out the windows they beheld a wonderful sight. It was raining in real earnest. Not only was it raining, but there were many indications of a continued downpour, and the thick gray clouds spread themselves over the sky as if they intended to stay there all day. And the rain splashed, and when windows were closed the drops chased one another down the glass in truly delightful fashion. And people lay in their beds and watched it rain. It was cool, too, and altogether the sensation was as delightful as it was novel. And now for the past week it has rained every other day some, and the rains seem general all over the county, and the entire drought stricken region. Captain Kaucher, whose business it has been to observe the weather for the last forty years, was exceedingly pleased at the rain which, he said, had been hovering about our town for several days, apparently timid about coming into the city.

just as cheap as any other standard grade wagon. We have also the Schuttler and Milburn wagons to sell. Come and see us and let us show you our line of Buggies, Carriages, Hacks, Road Wagons, Harness, Saddles and every thing wanted for a horse.

—Mrs. John Polly, of St. Joseph, is visiting her parents, W. C. Opel and wife.

—Miss Cora Riggle has returned to St. Joseph after a two weeks visit with her mother and friends.

—You can find Mrs. D. E. Bennett's ice cream at Mrs. M. Sayles, three doors south of postoffice, every Saturday and Sunday.

—Every railway conductor should be required to pledge himself not to try to make one more station because the other train is a little late.

—Wednesday of last week, Lum Patterson had two cars of hogs on the St. Joseph market, and they brought the top notch of the day's sales.

—The Stewartsville Investigator suggests that on account of the shortage of the potato crop the farmers raise turnips for common use and serve potatoes as dessert.

—Big railroad wrecks are costly to the company. It is stated that the recent wreck on the Chicago & Alton, near Marshall, some ten days ago, will cost that company about half a million dollars.

—The value of the recent rain to the farmers has not yet been computed, but its value to suffering humanity is about $5,000 per capita—the legal value of human life—for everybody was in danger of prostration.

—Ruby Nichols, the six-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Nichols, jumped from a gate post where she had been sitting watching a threshing machine, last Thursday evening and broke her right arm. Dr. J. W. Miller was called and reduced the fracture. —Mound City News.

—John H. Cantlin has completed a handsome residence on his farm north-east of Craig.

—Mrs. Ed. Gibson and Mrs. Dan Burrier left this week for a visit with relatives at Pueblo, Colorado.

—We are sorry to learn that Mrs. J. J. Crews, of Craig, received a stroke of paralysis about a week ago, and is lying at death's door.

—We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood McDonald, on the coming to their household of a sweet girl baby on Thursday of last week, July 25th.

—The rushing of cattle into the markets from drought-stricken districts may keep the price of beef within reach for the present, but look out for next fall and winter.

—Charles Cowan was in the Kansas City markets last week, and bought six cars of feeders, four of which he sent to Sioux Falls, Dakota for feeding, and bringing home the other two—he is now feeding 130 head.

—The Trovites did it. They came and played ball Monday a week ago. That night a good shower of rain fell. Tuesday they played another game, and on Thursday and Sunday we had good rains. Come again gentlemen. The Troy ball team is now known here as the "Rainmakers."

—Major Wilber Henry, past commander of the G. A. R. will be here three days of the reunion and have charge of the platform. Col. Atwood, of Kansas, will be one of the speakers. Among others who will come will be Judge Bland, Senator Hayes, President Thompson, of Tarkio College.—Craig Leader.

—Quite an unfortunate and painful accident befell Joseph Mascock, of our town last Thursday at Council Bluffs. The bridge men were called to assist in unloading a stationary engine from a flat car and Mr. Mascock's left hand was caught by a roller and two fingers were so badly mangled that they had to be amputated. He is at Company's Hospital at Council Bluffs, and getting along as well as could be expected.—Craig Leader.

Settle Up.

Having made a disposition of my stock of goods, by partnership, it is my desire to have all accounts due me settled up at once, either by cash or note.

JOHN C. PHILLIPS.

—Every report that comes to us from the threshing outfits, show more wheat than was expected, and of a uniformly high grade. Not only is the yield heavy and the price reasonably good, but there has been a market made for the straw and such a market as few of our farmers ever dreamed of. Kansas City firms have been offering $5.00 per ton for straw on the ground. The straw it is true is not so fattening as hay, but it is sustaining, and where stockmen are out of grass, if they have recourse to wheat straw this year they can pull it through. In conversation with one of our brightest farmers the other day he said: "We need every stalk of our wheat straw, and it never was in better condition for feed. The lack of rain has kept it from rust and must. It is as fresh as clover and absolutely clean. Cattle eat it to the last bit. They swell up on it, but it is not a beef maker."

—During the past week the Kansas City market has been flooded with cattle in no condition for sale and farmers and stock raisers have been forced to sacrifice their stock at ruinous prices. The condition was panicky and many stock raisers lost all they had in their efforts to save themselves. The recent rains have restored many pastures and have filled the rivers and pools. The suffering among stock during the coming fall will not be as great as is generally believed.
